

DANCE FOR THE SEA

Experience a unique underwater art exhibition this July

Camden's first ever underwater art exhibition

Kentish Town Sports Centre,
Grafton Road, NW5 3DU

22 July – 28 July

Mon-Fri 6am – 2:30pm

Sat-Sun 8am-6pm

Our oceans are under attack by plastic waste. Swim and explore the art of ballet photographed underwater and see what you can do to reduce your impact.

Free entry with pool admission
(concessions available)

Presented by Robin Conway and Fernando Montaña

Robin Conway
underwater photography

Dance For The Sea has been created by Fernando Montaña and Robin Conway and is run in partnership with charity The Marine Conservation Society, Camden's Leisure Centre Operator Better Leisure and Camden Council.