

OKLAHOMA CITY 2016 TOUR PLANNER

A photograph of the Oklahoma City skyline at sunset. The sky is a mix of blue and orange. Several skyscrapers are visible, including the Continental building on the left and the First Interstate World Center in the center. The buildings are silhouetted against the bright sky.

WELCOME TO OKLAHOMA CITY!

We're making it easy to plan your next tour with our Oklahoma City 2016 Tour Planner. The planner includes profile sheets on area attractions with special tour ideas, special events, hotels listing their group rates and group offerings, as well as restaurants with menus that provide you with all inclusive pricing.

Our services include:

- One-stop hotel rate quotes for motor-coach friendly hotels
- Itinerary planning assistance destination, region or stop over
- “Bus Box Greeting” — Let us personally welcome your group to our city with Oklahoma City promotional items
- Marketing assistance including promotional videos, images, attraction brochures and maps
- Up-to-date information on group pricing, hours of operation, special events, traffic conditions and many more details that will make your itinerary a success
- Calendar of Events
- Request for Proposal assistance

For a first-hand look at all Oklahoma City has to offer, watch our tourism video at www.VisitOKC.com.

BANJO
MUSEUM

American Banjo Museum

Open in the Bricktown district of downtown Oklahoma City since 2009, the American Banjo Museum is a $5 million, world-class 21,000 square foot facility honoring the rich history, vibrant spirit and unlimited future of the banjo. The American Banjo Museum houses the largest collection of banjos on public display in the world. Interpretive exhibits chronicle the banjo's colorful evolution from its humble African roots through its heyday during the Roaring 20s to its present day voice in Bluegrass, folk and world music.

OKLAHOMA CITY NATIONAL MEMORIAL & MUSEUM

2015 MUSE AWARD from the
AMERICAN ALLIANCE OF MUSEUMS

OklahomaCityNationalMemorial.org

Archives Tour – gives you a behind the scene tour of the nearly 1,000,000 artifacts collected on this single act of terrorism and the stories that have unfolded since April 19, 1995.

First Person – Hear from family members, survivors, rescue workers and community volunteers as they share their powerful stories of resilience during a 45-minute program.

The Survivor Tree promontory is the perfect acoustical stage for your group to sing or perform. Under the branches of this 100-year-old American Elm tree, we welcome scheduled performances at no charge.

The Oklahoma City Memorial Marathon is not about running, it is about life, honoring the memory of life lost through tragedy, celebrating the gift of life given equally to each person, and reaching forward into the future to life yet to be lived.

Available: Guided Museum Tours

Special Opportunities just for Groups
Available by reservation only

MUSEUM GROUP RATES

Groups of 15 or more
Adults $12; Senior and Military $10; Students $7*
Monday-Saturday, 9 a.m. – 6 p.m. and Sunday, Noon-6 p.m. Ticket sales stop daily at 5 p.m.
The Museum is a self-guided tour lasting approximately 1.5 hours.

OUTDOOR SYMBOLIC MEMORIAL

Open 24 hours a day, seven days a week.
There is no charge to tour the Memorial Grounds.
National Park Service Rangers are available to give site orientation talks to pre-scheduled groups between the hours of 9:00am and 4:30pm by appointment.

The Outdoor Symbolic Memorial is a place of quiet reflection. The Memorial Museum is a place of amazing transformation. Each offers a unique insight into the events of April 19, 1995, but to truly experience this place of honor and hope, we strongly encourage you to visit both. In fact, the outdoor grounds will be more meaningful and memorable after experiencing the entire story of the bombing as presented in the Museum.

The Skirvin Hilton Oklahoma City

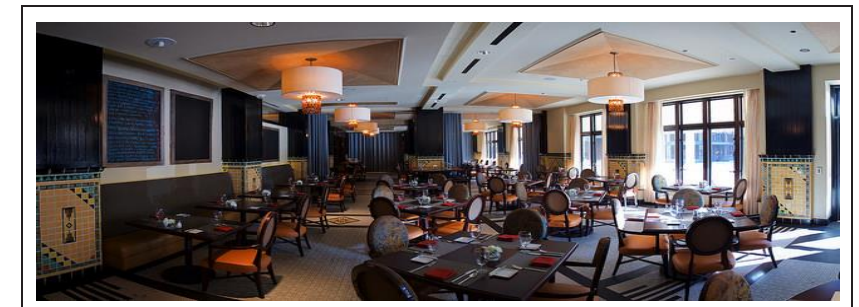

Hotel History

The moment it opened in 1911, Oklahoma fell in love with the Skirvin. Its sophistication charmed a steady stream of presidents and world figures, oil barons, and Hollywood elite. With its grand reopening in 2007, this beautifully restored and re-invented gem continues to shine in downtown Oklahoma City.

The Skirvin Hilton features 225 luxuriously appointed guest rooms including twenty specialty suites and one presidential suite. A fitness center with cardio theatre, indoor swimming pool with whirlpool spa and full service business center are also offered to our guests. The Skirvin is centrally located, just blocks from Oklahoma City's top attractions and Bricktown's Restaurant and Entertainment District.

Park Avenue Grill and Red Piano Lounge

We offer a full-service American style restaurant featuring our take on the modern Southern Table, serving breakfast, lunch and dinner daily as well as 24 hour room service. The Red Piano Lounge is open daily at noon with live music on a Red Baby Grand Piano every Tuesday through Saturday.

Guest Rooms and Suite Features

- 32" flat panel televisions
