

PORT EVERGLADES TARIFF NO. 12

Item No. 635–Wharf demurrage rates.

Issue No. 10

Effective Date: October 1, 2015

All cargo remaining in Port Everglades after free time has expired and not accepted for storage or remaining in Port Everglades after expiration of an authorized storage period, shall thereafter be assessed a wharf demurrage charge as detailed below. The vessel's franchised steamship agent or vessel representative is responsible for the payment of wharf demurrage charges.

Note:

- I. Located inside transit shed
- II. Located outside on open ground

	I.	II.
1. All articles not otherwise provided for; per day or fraction; per ton$	1.00	.75
2. Automobiles, trucks, tractors, trailers or other vehicles; per day; each$	N.A.	6.15
3. Boats and yachts on cradles or trailers; per day each ...$	N.A.	55.75
4. Lumber, per 1,000 B.M. (Net) per day or fraction$	1.00	.75
5. Containers, on or off chassis, containing cargo or empty per day; each$	N.A.	8.40

Every two (2) calendar days after the initial commencement of demurrage, the franchised steamship agent or vessel representative shall complete and submit a Port Everglades Storage Inventory Count Form to the Finance Division, Port Everglades Department, and shall submit copies of all delivery receipts supporting the data thereon. Inventory Count Forms required by this Item to be submitted on a weekend shall be deemed submitted in a timely manner if said forms are received on the immediately succeeding business day.

Item No. 635–Wharf demurrage rates. (Cont.)

Failure to submit an Inventory Count Form in a timely manner or failure to provide all information requested (including all relevant delivery receipts) will result in a late charge of twenty-five dollars ($25.00) per business day or any portion thereof for which the Inventory Count Form has not been submitted or remains incomplete.