

Welcome to the first edition of the "Huntington Beach {Surf City} Craft Beer Tour"! A little about the author: Dennis Midden grew up a bakers son, became a baker first in the 80's when his wife bought him a home brew kit. After brewing about 4 to 5 batches at home he started seeing "Brew-on Premise" start popping up, then decided to use this concept to introduce great beer and bread to the Huntington Beach community. BrewBakers was born, get-it...Beer & Bread...BrewBakers opened in 1996 and enjoyed 18 years before selling to Manuel Florence, who is keeping the tradition going.

I am very excited to see all the activity and excitement in craft brews all over the world but especially excited for Huntington Beach. So if you haven't been to some of these breweries please grab your family and friends and take a day off! Prost!

This is Huntington Beach's newest brewery and they came in with a WIN at "The Taste of Huntington", in 2015! They also are the proud owners of the old 1931 BrewBakers Coach known and loved in Huntington Beach, and they use it for local deliveries, special events and you can even rent it out for your house party! The Coach is even equipped with taps. Order your growler today and maybe it will pull up at your front door. They are planning on selling homebrew equipment and supplies at their new tasting room. Huntington Beach will have it all!

BJ's Restaurant Brewery

BJ's Restaurant brewery started in Huntington Beach! Their headquarters is in Huntington Beach near Bella Terra. They have two locations in Huntington Beach:

16060 Beach Blvd, Huntington Beach, CA 92647

200 Main St, Huntington Beach, CA 92648

A great restaurant and a great selection of their own beers {my personal favorite is Tatonka, a rich full bodied Stout} as well as a great offering of guest beers.

With 6 breweries and 8 locations,
I feel better about your day already, Prost!
