Pierce County has more than 20 courses that range from phenomenal public links to pristine golf clubs. Pierce County is a hot spot for pros and amateurs.

CHAMBERS BAY GOLF COURSE

University Place

This is a course where golf isn't just a game—it's an experience. Chambers Bay Pure Links Golf Course is a stunning tribute to the historic links of Scotland. This pure links golf course is surrounded by views of the Puget Sound and is encircled by trails that create more than a three-mile scenic loop through Chambers Creek Properties. Chambers Bay was named by Golfweek Magazine as number two for "America's Best Municipal Courses." Chambers Bay hosted the 2010 U.S. Amateur and will host the 2015 U.S. Open.

- Number of holes: 18
- Course par: 72
- Course yardage: 7,500

THE HOME COURSE

DuPont

Looking for affordable and exceptional golf? The Home Course was recognized by Golfweek Magazine as the number two "Best Public Course in Washington." This walkable course has panoramic views of the Puget Sound, Olympic Mountains and Mount Rainier. Enjoy historical features throughout the course such as buried bunker remnants from the explosive manufacturing era. Rolling fairways and contoured greens with minimal water and trees give golfers a challenge similar to Chambers Bay.

- Number of holes: 18
- Course par: 72
- Course yardage: 7,400

MEADOW PARK GOLF COURSE

Tacoma

Lined with magnificent fir and oak trees, Meadow Park Golf Course offers something for everyone. The course includes an 18-hole championship course, executive 9-hole, two putting courses and a driving range. Spend the afternoon at the grill or relaxing on the patio overlooking the putting greens.

- Number of holes: 18
- Course par: 71
- Course yardage: 6,100
